

Mission of the library – provide the access to variable information, according to the study programmes; support a student, academics' and staff study and research work; optimize the studying process with the help of the information service and information resource system; within the possibilities maximally collect in the fund all Latvian and foreign paper issues in accordance with the study programmes.

Vision of the library - the library with qualitative information resource collection and professional workers; after attentive modernization of the fund with a greater number of paper issues in English on the most demanded science fields with modern studying environment and today's level of technologies.